

NEWSLETTER

December 2018

Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center

ANNUAL EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION APPRECIATION AWARDS

ERCC's Sixth Annual Employee recognition was held on November 5th from 3PM to 5PM.

Pictured below is our longest employed employee-- Johnny Bodkin, Environmental Service Aide-- 49 years.

Front Row (L-R)
 Diane Shaffer-Dietary Aide (20 years), Regina Terrano-LPN (15 years), Betty Woods-Feeding Assistant (10 years), Doris Knotts-Dietary Aide (25 years), Johnny Bodkin-Environmental Services Aide (49 years), Tammy Shoulders-CNA (10 years), Rebecca Green-CNA (20 years).

All 14 recognized employees received a certificate of appreciation, ERCC lapel pin with years of service, and cash appreciation award. Those with 25 years or more received the same as above PLUS an engraved wooden

Back Row (L-R)
 David Winners-Human Resources Assistant (5 years), Julia Phillips-Health Information Management Assistant (26 years), Jean Ramsey-Administrative Assistant (26 years) Louise Armstrong-Dietary Aide (15 years), Donna Jones-Director of Activities (5 years)

A drawing was held for those in attendance: 6 gift cards were given away plus a weekend getaway to Canaan Valley Resort.

Our Chaplain, Rev. Basil Hensley was unable to attend; Bill Riffie filled in.

Not pictured: Buddy Gragg, Jr.-Maintenance Assistant (10 years) and Kenneth Shank-Environmental Services Aide (10 years)

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Candy Arbogast, -- Environmental Service Aide was chosen by the Residents council for the November employee of the month. Congratulations Candy!

EMPLOYEE THANKSGIVING DINNER

The employees enjoyed a covered dish Thanksgiving luncheon on Friday, November 16th from 10:30AM to 1:00PM. We are thankful for many blessings; one of which is the modern facility we are employed at.

APPLE BUTTER MAKINGS

December is a joyous time of the year. Our residents really get into the spirit of things. On Wednesday, November 14th they enjoyed some fellowship time by making apple butter to be sold at the Residents Christmas Sale on Thurs, December 6th. They harvested 9 quarts, 32 pints, and 4 jelly jars of apple butter. Also, to be available at the sale will be crafts, baked goods, and a box lunch containing hot dog, cold salad, and chips.

CHRISTMAS CANDLELIGHT SERVICE

Our 14th Annual Christmas Candlelight Service will be held on Thursday, December 13th at 7PM in ERCC's dining room. Rev. Dr. Basil A. Hensley, retired United Methodist Minister and ERCC Chaplain will lead the service along with the First United Methodist Church Chancel Choir and ConwayRingers (handbell choir). The choir is under the direction of Gale Poe.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Throughout the month of December, there will be groups coming in for caroling and performing different programs.

BIRTHDAYS IN DECEMBER

Linda Dean

Paul Mullins

Alice Harlin

Sharyn Kerns

Thomas Phillips

William Phillips

Lawrence Williams

ANGEL TREE

We have an angel tree in the Activity Room to bring a little extra cheer to our resident on Christmas morning. The angels have numbers. Activity has the names for each number.

NEW HIRES FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER

CNA: Megan A. Bennett

LPN: Mandy D. Burns

RN: Stacy M. Smith

ERCC would like to wish everyone a blessed and joyous holiday.

FYI: Included with this newsletter, please find a leaflet about tips to stay healthy during the cold and flu season.