ERCC Crowns Valentine's Day Royalty

Submitted photo Two Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center residents were crowned as Valentine's Day King and Queen on Feb. 14 at the facility's third annual Valentine's Day Dinner. Queen Hazel Hanger, left, and King Stanley Gould, right, received their crowns during ERCC's 2019 Valentine celebration for residents. In addition to their crowns, the royal couple received Valentine gifts including teddy bears, chocolates and a Valentine flower bouquet. A steak dinner with all the trimmings was served to all residents and families in attendance.
