Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center

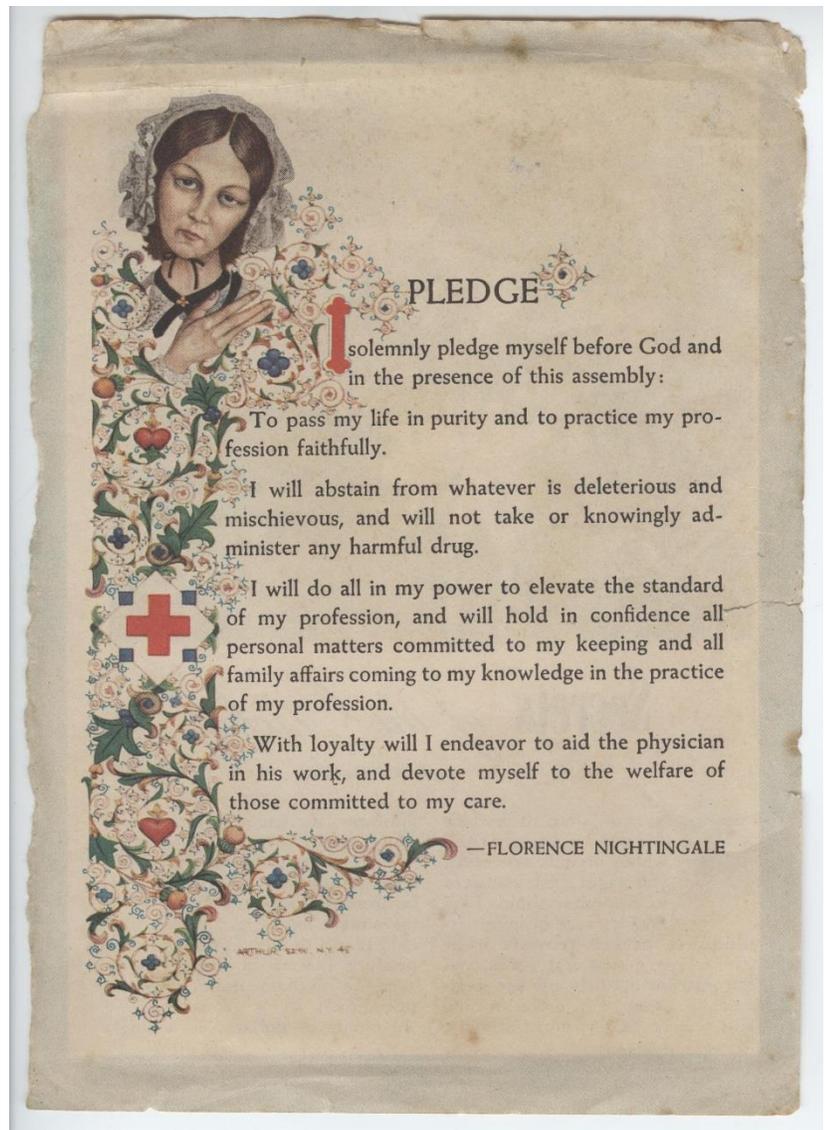

National Nurses Week is celebrated annually from May 6 to May 12. May 12 is also known as National Nurses Day, the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing; also known for her night rounds to aid the wounded, establishing her image as the “Lady with the Lamp”. Nurses play an important part in our health care setting and are highly educated professionals. The future of nursing is full of anticipation and optimism and is illuminating the path for health and wellness for our community.

ERCC is proud of their nurses!! During the Nurses Week they were shown appreciation by the following:

On Monday they were presented with donuts and a pin; Tuesday, they were given ice cream and a nurse key chain. On Wednesday they were served a sandwich/fruit and cupcake luncheon and given a nurse mug. Thursday they received a Bluetooth speaker and pizza; Friday they were presented with snacks for “survival” and a nurse tote.

We want to thank each and every one for the tasks and care they perform daily!

Nursing Home Week May 12 through May 18 2019

National Skilled Nursing Care Center Week (NSNCW) has been held annually since 1967 and always begins on Mother's Day. It's sponsored by American Health Care Association and recognizes the role of skilled nursing care centers in caring for America's seniors and individuals with disabilities. The theme for 2019 is "Live Soulfully". (Helping others to achieve happy minds and healthy souls.)
