EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH FOR AUGUST

Bobbie Hoover, CNA

Residents' Council has chosen Bobbie Hoover, CNA as Employee of the Month for August. She is a single Mom of three children: 2 girls (Caley 11 years old and Timberlyn 5 years old) and 1 boy (Colten, 11 months old). She is the daughter of Max and Ronda Smith and has one sister and two brothers. She has been employed at ERCC for approximately two years; attended Tygart Valley High School and obtained her GED diploma. She lives in Beverly with her children and enjoys the outdoors, especially kayaking. She also enjoys time with her family. Congratulations Bobbie for being chosen for the employee of the month for August!

OUR COURTYARD

“RESIDENTS SALAD PATCH”

I AM FROM—BY RESIDENTS ON THE REFLECTIONS UNIT

I am from tall sinks, dogs, organs, and barns.

I am from children running everywhere and clothes lines.

I am from wood stoves, hard work, and from singing on my daddy's knee.

I am from stone houses, clapboard houses, and a big blue place called home

I am from cherry pies, homemade ice cream, and tomatoes fresh from the garden.

I am from salt fish, green beans, and lard.

I am from wisteria, roses, peach trees, dogwood, and a big tree for climbing whose long limbs I Remember as if they were my own.

I'm from singing Christmas carols and hiding eggs, family prayers, church, and taking care of babies.

I am from walking to school, fireworks, watermelon, and my cute little dog.

I am from Mom and Dad, sisters and brothers

I am from a big family and whippings.

I am from Ring-Around the Rosey, Loretta Lynn, and Roy Rodgers.

I am from skinny dipping making hay, home births, and hard work.

I am from the Cheat River, Parsons, Slaty Fork, and Randolph County.

I am from beans and biscuits, cookies and cakes.

I am from peach pie, cookies filled with raisins, anything and everything.

I am from hopscotch, marbles, and jumping rope with us girls.

I AM FROM--BY THE RESIDENTS OF ERCC

I am from washtubs, gardens, water buckets, and barns.

From wooden paddles hung by the door, from castor oil, flyswatters, and metal stools.

I am from wooden clapboard, bricks, and a home made from wood milled by my dad.

I am from the smell of roses, lilacs, Clorox, and homemade bread.

I am from dandelions, white peaches, gardenias, and fresh tomatoes straight from the garden.

I am from the mighty oak, the apple tree, balsam fir whose long gone limbs I remember as if they were my own.

I am from church and hymnals, chewing gum, dancing at the American Legion, and hand me downs.

I am from visiting neighbors, saying the Lord's Prayer, swimming at the YMCA, and Annie Over.

I am from "always behave," "respect your elders," and "if you can't say something nice, say nothing at all."

I am from barefoot in the summer, Jesus Loves Me, and She'll be Coming Round the Mountain.

I am from Vics Vape rub and Merthiolate.

I am from apple pie, pulling taffy, and homemade ice cream.

I am from knocking my sisters off the porch and breaking my arm, and playing football in the back yard.

I am from collected rocks, old family photos, toy soldiers, Aunt Millie's brooch, antlers, wheat pennies, and marbles all stored in an old cigar box in my heart.

I am from love, family, whippings, fresh air and mountains.
