Valentine's Day Party

Submitted photo Elkins Rehabilitation & Care Center crowned their Valentine's Day King and Queen during a dinner held on Feb. 14. Kessler 'Kess' Pingley was named king and Alice Hanlin was crowned queen during the dinner. The theme for the evening was 'Dinner in Italy' and featured various pastas, salad, bread sticks and Cannoli pie. Local musician Seth Maynard provided the musical entertainment for the event. Pictured from left are King Pingley and Queen Hanlin.
